Sunday Noon 8.

My dear Friend

As I am sure you would wish to hear from me as soon as I could, I write a line immediately to propose Thursday rather than Wednesday, for spending a part of the day with you, if, as I earnestly hope you receive no worse tidings of your brother.

My Uncle has concluded to remain here next Wednesday, prior to returning to Lee but to as he wishes to take me to Lynn on Wednes. to see me on two objects of interest to both of Equally convenient to you, have great pleasure in being with you at any hour you may fix on Thursday. I must ask the Lake in returning in the event as Marion finds objection to wander-ing about London alone after dark.

So be perfectly free in suggesting any Plan which will be more convenient for our meeting. Should Wednesday Noon be named I will be in attendance suitable to you.

With kindest regards to your whole party - believe me ever affec.
